Emmet Park - Legacy Cherry Trees and Other Flowering Trees
Tour by RMA CEO Deborah Shapley April 3, 2026

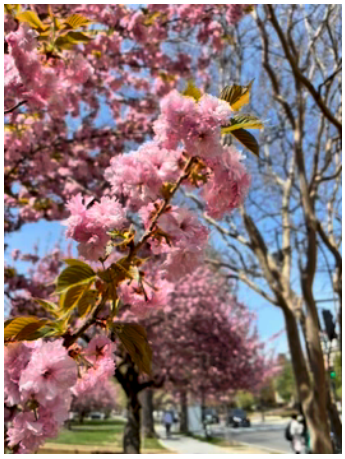

Yoshino Cherry (Somei-Yoshino)
Prunus x yedoensis Matsum
"This is the enchanting Japanese flowering cherry of Tidal Basin fame….flowers pale pink at first, later turning nearly white [and] blushing pink at the base before falling," Choukas-Bradley & Alexander, City of Trees

Kwanzan Cherry
Prunus serrulata Lindl
"A deep pink, double-blossomed Japanese cherry that blooms about two weeks later than the Yoshino and Akebono." Flowers large, double-flowered in clusters of three to five." "upright habit…branches forming an inverse pyramid."
Choukas-Bradley & Alexander, City of Trees

Left by 2424 California St Right by Japan Emb 2420 Mas

Local flowering trees that are not cherry trees

Dogwood 2408 Calif St

Redbud 1810 24 St

Bradford Pear 2501 Mass

RESTORE MASS AVE

Friends Working Together to Re-green Embassy Row
World Forum on Urban Forests Awards
DC Preservation League Award for Excellence in Education

Our work relies on your support!
Visit us at https://restoremassave.org/donate/

Restore Mass Ave

Friends Working Together to Re-green Embassy Row

13% increase in tree canopy in our first decade!
World Forum on Urban Forests Awards
DC Preservation League Award for Excellence in Education
RestoreMassAve.org @RestoreMassAvenue